

Sebastopol

Harbor

The Sebastopol Defenses: Southeastern Perimeter

June 7, 1855

The allies capture Russian outworks in front of the main defensive wall at the Quarries and the Mamelon.

It is easy to discern the strong resemblance between these earthen defenses and William Lamb's Fort Fisher.

← Dockyard Creek
(Man-of-war Harbor)

Hospital

Karabelnaya
(Suburb of Karabel)

Barrack
Battery

Bastion No. 3

Great Redan

The Malakoff

Bastion No. 2

Little Redan

Mamelon

The Kamtchatka
Lunette

Dockyard

← To Sebastopol

Woronzoff
Road

The Quarries

Abatis

Abatis

RUSSIAN LINES

RUSSIAN LINES

Ravine

RUSSIAN LINES

Second Parallel

First Parallel

FRENCH RIGHT

BRITISH LEFT

BRITISH RIGHT

Woronzoff
Ravine

Third Parallel

Second Parallel

First Parallel

Chapman's Battery

First Parallel

Bastion No. 1

Battery of the Point

Bridge

Careening
Creek

Battery

Wolf-Pits

Bastion No. 2

Little Redan

Curtain

Wolf-Pits

Careening
Ravine

To the main

AQUEDUCT

1/4 MILE

